The winners of the competition “Verfemte Musik 2008” will perform the music of Izzy Fuhrmann and Walter Arlen at a concert given under the auspices of the honorable Dr. Christian Stocks, German Consul General, at the Goethe-Institut Los Angeles on Monday, April 20, 2009.

The Music Academy Schwerin has been celebrating the music of composers, who suffered under the Nazi regime, in an annual festival and competition for young instrumentalists and vocalists.

In 2008, a research project into the music of the Fuhrmann family and the life and work of composer and conductor Walter Arlen was started. Its results come to fruition in Los Angeles this spring, when the winners of the Izzy Fuhrmann Award 2008 will have their debut in Los Angeles

They are:

Helge Aurich/piano
Daniel Beider/piano
Sonja Bisgiel/ piano
Li Jing/piano
Sumi Sefuri/soprano
Albrecht von Stackelberg/baritone
Claudia Roick/soprano.

The founders of “Verfemte Musik/Schwerin” noted pianists Volker Ahmels and Friederike Haufe will also be present.

This project is supported by the American Jewish University, the Simon Wiesenthal Center, the L.A. Opera and the German Consulate General.

Special thanks to Brigitte Medvin.
